Dear Norma:

It was just about a year ago at this time that we sat down and made our choices for the "Outstanding Club Representative" for the year 1968. With the nomination that was submitted for George was a scrapbook of his "Numismatic Life."

I thought perhaps you would want that book and it is being forwarded to you under separate cover.

Just a little note of explanation as to how Coin World scooped everybody on the National Coin Week winners and that was because one of the judges was on the staff of The News. We should have gotten a letter off to the District Representatives but we got a little snowed under with the preparations for the Summer Seminars and the forthcoming Convention to the extent that a lot of other important Public Relations duties suffered. The "Faux-pas" was mine.

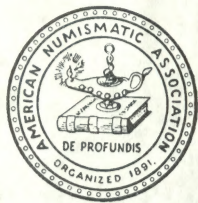

Sure hope that you can make it to Philadelphia this year.

Sincerely,

EDWARD C. ROCHETTE

Dear Ed,

I'm crushed!

Of course it wasn't your fault that you were not in the office when I phoned to ask if Gladys had won in National Coin Week, etc. But if the District Representatives had been sent the news release about the winners at the same time they went to the publications Corpus Christi Coin Club comments that went out with the minutes of the last meeting could - and would - have mentioned Richard Ricketts honorable mention.

Gladys had to read in Numismatic News and then tell me that she had won first place. All I was told in the letter was that she was "a winner." We never subscribed to Numismatic News, just have too many other things demanding time, so had to learn from Gladys that one of the clubs in my district had won second in Class C.

Each of the winners will receive a letter of congratulation from the district rep tomorrow as a matter of public relations for the association. This isn't much but it is a gesture that can't hurt.

I humbly suggest that it be recommended to future NCW committees that the district reps be let know who the winners are.

Cordially,

Mrs. Norma Mather, Dist 6

Dear Ed,

Thank you so much for sending the scrapbook about George. It came six months to the day that I went to New Orleans expecting to spend a happy week end with him and came home with a heavy, heavy heart. I miss him so, Ed, and have come to realize that I took that most wonderful man I was blessed to have as a husband so much for granted. There were so many things I might have done that would have given him joy. I can't do them now and I can't begin to do what he did. He did so much for so many and never spared himself that his task was complete before he was sixty. I pray God's help - and George's - as I try to do what little I can.

George wouldn't have fussed at you for not letting the District Representatives know who were the winners for National Coin Week - that's an example of his greatness. I think he would have let you know how disappointed the winners were to get the word from the papers first. The scoop is understandable considering the committee membership and your involvement. I'm real proud of folks down our way. Now if we can get response from other parts of the state in the future it'll be better.

Back to the scrapbook - it was a surprise to me. I called Gladys who said Miriam had made it. I've written Miriam. I've never kept a scrapbook but hope I'll complete this one for George.

I do plan to come to Philly - see you there.

Cordially,

Norma
